This week's 'Talk at Home' topic

We love World Book Day at Saltaire Primary School! Every year we get to celebrate our love of reading and appreciate how, by reading, we get to experience other worlds, times, facts or fiction. It is great fun to dress up as our favourite characters. But is this the best way to celebrate books and reading? Are there other ways we could spread the joy of books?

Is dressing up the best way to celebrate World Book Day?

Table Talk

If I were an author, I would write about...

I think that...

I believe that...

In my opinion...

Some people may argue that..., however...

On the one hand...but...

I am convinced that...
