Word of the Week:

Mission

an important assignment given to a person or group of people, typically involving travel

"Sunita Williams and 'Butch' Wilmore have now been stuck in space for the past nine months and have been helping ongoing missions at the ISS including taking part in spacewalks to look after the station."

The best way to find your voice is to use it

This week's 'Talk at Home' topic

Nasa has had to cancel the launch of its Crew-10 mission, which was going to bring home two astronauts who've been stuck in space for months. Butch Wilmore and Suni Williams set off on Boeing's Starliner spacecraft in June 2024 after multiple delays. They were only meant to stay on board the International Space Station (ISS) for around a week, however their craft developed a number of issues - meaning they were unable to head back.

What would you miss if you were stuck in space?

Table Talk

If I were stuck in space, I would look after myself by...

I think that...

I believe that...

In my opinion...

Some people may argue that..., however...

On the one hand...but...

I am convinced that...
